Now in its 35th year, Colorado Concours has raised over $1.7M for the four Creative Options Centers for Early Childhood Education at Ability Connection Colorado. This family-friendly event features entertainment by jazz band MoDaZz, Nature's Educators, The Wild Animal Sanctuary, and more. Food and beverage will be offered for sale from local vendors.

"The unique setting for families to come together with all these spectacular cars in one place for the day is irresistible," said Kathy Higgins, Board Chairman of ACCO.

About Creative Options Centers for Early Education

Through four early education centers, the Creative Options program facilitates optimal individual development for infants, toddlers and pre-school children of all abilities through family support and a nurturing environment. As a grantee in Aurora for Head Start and Early Head Start, Creative Options wraps intervention, prevention and support services into educational goals through a whole family approach, serving close to 600 children.
