

Did you know Creative Options offers a series of virtual parenting classes???

The first session is:

HOW TO PROVIDE SOCIAL EMOTIONAL DISCIPLINE

https://youtu.be/AL9jKp_iC10

In this session, we will look at the difference between discipline and punishment. We will talk about teaching your child different behaviors to support their discipline. We will provide strategies on having conversations with children on what to do; tell them the behavior expected. It's about giving them simple language and having respectful kind conversations about what to do using age appropriate purposeful loving guidance.

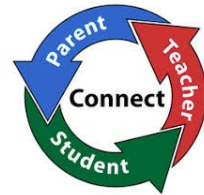

We would like to hear from you if this session was helpful. We will follow up with a short survey.

If you would like more information or additional resources please reach out to your Family Coach.

Parent/Teacher Conferences

Several times a year teachers conduct parent conferences. Very soon your classroom teacher will contact you to schedule a 20–30-minute conference. You have the choice of a phone call or in-person meeting. This is an important opportunity to discuss your child's growth and development. You will also review the progress being made on specific school readiness goals. Use your conference time to ask questions and to collaborate with the teacher on how to reach shared expectations.
